

PROFILE – PETER HAYES PRESIDENT

Peter Hayes was elected to the position of DICA President at the 2018 AGM.

Peter is a graduate of IMC 1986 and member of the Alumni since its 1990 inception as the IMCA. He was elected to the position of National Secretary at the 2009 AGM and re-elected for a further four terms at subsequent AGMs and concurrently held the position of Treasurer (Pro-tem). From late 2014 until 2017, he held the position of Membership Coordinator and again re-appointed Treasurer pro-tem from mid-2015 until Dec2018. Concurrently, with his present position as DICA President, Peter continues to hold the role of Training and Professional Development Officer, to which he was elected at the 2017 AGM.

In recognition of his outstanding service to DICA in the roles of Secretary and Treasurer, Peter was granted Life Membership at the 2013 AGM. He also served a term as the Vice president (IMC) in 2014.

Peter is a former RAAF Group Captain with specialisations in logistics, intelligence, security and joint operations planning. After 35 years military service, he retired from full-time duty in 2001. He is a graduate of the Air Force Staff College, the Australian Defence College and UNSW (Australian Defence Force Academy). He holds degrees in Economics (Hons), Defence Studies and International Business.

Since retirement from full-time duty with the RAAF, Peter has worked as a consultant in the private sector, specialising in trade with China. He has also worked in the IT sector as a Project Manager, in the education sector as a Teacher and mentor, in the recruitment services industry and as an interviewer with the Australian Bureau of Statistics. He presently works as an independent Defence Industry Analyst.

Peter brings to his roles, a profound depth of Defence industry experience and knowledge to assist the Alumni with its vital future redevelopment.

.....